

G.A.M.A Membership Application Information

New or Ex-Members Only

The application to join the Georgetown Aero Modelers Association involves joining two organizations.

You must first join the national organization – the Academy of Model Aeronautics (AMA). AMA membership provides you liability insurance. You will also receive a monthly magazine as well as additional mailings. You may also receive a monthly newsletter via email if you sign up for that service.

You may obtain additional information about the AMA membership dues, membership categories and the application form by visiting the AMA web site at www.modelaircraft.org. You may also obtain an AMA membership application from some hobby shops or you may contact one of the G.A.M.A. officers for assistance. No one may fly at the G.A.M.A. flying field without a valid AMA membership card.

Once you receive your AMA membership card you may apply for membership in the Georgetown Aero Modelers Association. The G.A.M.A. Membership (Regular or senior) is a family membership and includes you, your spouse and any children under the age of 18 who are living in your household.
